

NOT ROOSEVELT MAN, DECLARES HINMAN

Ex-Senator Says That He Has Made No Trade or Dicker
With Colonel.

NOT ENTANGLED WITH 1916

Candidate, in Opening His Campaign, Sharply Attacks
Barnes Faction.

PLATTSBURG, Aug. 11.—Ex-Senator Harvey D. Hinman opened his campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor at the county convention of the party here to-day.
In his speech Mr. Hinman reiterated his opposition to the Barnes leadership and his denial of any deal with Col. Roosevelt. Mr. Hinman said in part:

"I always have been and shall continue to be a Republican. With you I am proud of our party's history, its achievements and its great leaders. I am against the aims of the moment and am for the principles upon which our nation was founded and which have endured for more than a century.

"Our State party leadership is not liberal and has kept in step with the true spirit of the times moulding public sentiment and directing it along safe and conservative lines.

"Attacks the Barnes Crowd.
"In recent times, and particularly in this State, certain leaders who have control of our party organization are using it as a personal asset to further their own personal and selfish ambitions. They have adopted a policy of being against everything and for nothing, and having no constructive policies are continually preaching the sacredness of the Constitution while being guilty of practices which tend to weaken it not to destroy the people's faith in constitutional representative government.

"The result of such leadership has been to create a spirit of distrust and to demand for the initiative, referendum, recall and the like, all of which to a degree change our form of government and which I am against.

"The greatest issue in this State this year is to get rid of the crowd which is now running our governmental affairs and to establish honest and efficient government. It is on that issue and as a Republican that I am a candidate in the Republican primaries for Governor.

"There are those who from purely selfish motives and in order to perpetuate themselves in control of our party machinery, at whatever cost to the party, are seeking to create an impression in the minds of the people that I have personally that I have made a deal with Col. Roosevelt or with the Barnes faction in return for their support. I have in some way obligated myself to him or to them.

"Not Roosevelt's Candidate.
"I have not become and am not the candidate of Col. Roosevelt, nor of any other man. President Roosevelt's support of my candidacy was given by him voluntarily, without the slightest solicitation from me, and carries with it no personal or political obligation of any kind on my part, either expressed or implied.

"I have become a candidate because I have been earnestly solicited by many of the most loyal and staunch Republicans in many parts of the State for this nomination to become such a candidate. No trade, dicker or deal of any kind has been asked of, suggested to or made by me in my behalf with Mr. Roosevelt or with any Progressive, and I have given no assurance, express or implied, to any one, except the assurances and promises which I have made in public and to the public, namely that if nominated and elected Governor I will bend my every energy, both day and night, to cleaning out and cleaning up the mass of corruption now existing in the State and to restoring honest and efficient government in State affairs; and that promise will be kept to the end.

"Refers to 1916 Campaign.
"Some fear that my nomination and election as Governor will mean Mr. Roosevelt's nomination for President in 1916. I have no information of any kind that Mr. Roosevelt has any ambition for 1916.

"If he has such an ambition the people of this State can rest assured, and I promise them, that if I am elected Governor that office will not be used to further any personal or political ambition of Mr. Roosevelt or of any other man, myself included.

"I am asking for the support of all Republicans of the State who believe with me in Republican principles and who believe in honest and efficient government. I will do exactly what I have already indicated that I would do, namely, give my best time and efforts to reestablishing honest and efficient government in every department of governmental affairs.

"I ask this support, fully realizing that in supporting me in the primaries no Republican is in any way prejudiced, but on the contrary is perfectly free to vote at the election for the nominee of the Republican party, whoever he may be, and whatever may be the situation after the primaries.

CITIZENS UNION SIFTS BAD ASSEMBLYMEN

Report Particularly Criticizes Records on Measures Affecting City.

CLEAN BILL FOR SULZER

Nelson, Crane and Stoddard
Among Few Getting Unqualified O. K.

The Citizens Union made public yesterday the report of its committee on legislation as to the records of the thirty-five Assemblymen from Manhattan and The Bronx. The survey of Senators was published on Monday.

In forming its judgment the committee considered the Assemblymen's attitude toward measures especially relating to this city and toward general measures affecting this city's government. The Assemblymen had an opportunity to examine the record and make suggestions and criticisms before the report was adopted.

The record, as compiled by the Citizens Union, follows:

New York County.
"Coughlin, Thomas R. (Dem., First district, New York).—Absent during greater part of session on account of illness. The one bill he introduced was objectionable.

"Smith, Alfred E. (Dem., Second district).—Experienced and resourceful leader of Democratic minority. Seldom exercised influence in behalf of desirable legislation. Recorded on quick roll call against objectionable Kings county register payroll bill. Otherwise, record of good.

"Golden, John R. (Dem., Third district, New York).—New member. Introduced some good measures, but record of votes uniformly bad.

"McDonough, John (Dem., Fourth district, New York).—New member. Record of votes bad. Introduced an objectionable special pension bill.

"Sulzer, William (Prog., Fifth district, New York).—Active. Record of votes good.

"McDonough, Peter P. (Dem., Seventh district, New York).—Record of votes bad. Introduced legislation of varying merit.

"Sulzer, Solomon (Prog., Eighth district, New York).—Record of votes in Assembly good, but record in committee unsatisfactory because of his being frequently unrecorded. Recorded on quick roll call against an objectionable payroll bill. Introduced measures of varying merit.

"Donohue, Charles D. (Dem., Ninth district, New York).—Record of votes bad. Frequently unrecorded. Opposed desirable short ballot legislation.

"Bleeker, Leon (Prog., Tenth district, New York).—New member. Record of votes in Assembly good, but record in committee unsatisfactory because of his being frequently unrecorded. Recorded on quick roll call against an objectionable civil service bill. Record good.

"Loquacious and Valueless."
"Kerrigan, John (Dem., Eleventh district, New York).—As in previous years, made uniformly bad record of votes and on legislation introduced. A loquacious and valueless legislator.

"Kerrigan, Joseph D. (Dem., Twelfth district, New York).—Record of votes consistently bad. Frequently unrecorded. Introduced some desirable legislation.

"Campbell, James G. (Dem., Thirteenth district, New York).—Record of votes bad. Introduced no bills.

THREE DEAD AND MANY INJURED

Man Struck by Lightning in Open Boat—Girl Adrift Beside Corpse of Companion—Moving Picture Actor Killed Seeking Refuge—Sewers Overflow.

SUBWAY EXCAVATION IN THE BRONX GIVES WAY

Shy artillery got into action yesterday afternoon and for ten minutes utterly obliterated the roof of the subway excavation in the Bronx.

It was a tumultuous old style thunder storm, and when it was over the temperature, which had been at 83, with a high percentage of humidity, had dropped to 73. Much of the moisture that made the early afternoon seem hotter than it was was squeezed out of the air. The local prospects with the Washington experts in declaring that it will be fair and cooler to-day, with gentle to moderate northerly winds.

Two men were killed by lightning and a third died from apoplexy, brought on by exertion in seeking shelter. Many persons were injured in accidents due directly and indirectly to the storm.

Killed in Open Boat.
William L. Anderson of Hoboken was instantly killed by a bolt of lightning as he and Miss Clara Freudenberg of Jersey City were making their way through the storm in an open boat. The boat was overturned and the two were killed.

When she revived and realized her danger she got to her feet and waved her arms and shouted until she was seen by a boat which came to her rescue. The drifting boat was picked up and towed into St. George. Miss Freudenberg was taken to the S. R. Smith Infirmary.

The drift boat, which was a small, open boat, was overturned and the two were killed. The drifting boat was picked up and towed into St. George. Miss Freudenberg was taken to the S. R. Smith Infirmary.

When she regained consciousness she tried to raise her companion and the shock of finding him dead again unnerved her. Then she realized that the motor had stopped and that the boat was drifting. With but faint hope of attracting attention in the vicinity, she waved and shouted desperately. She kept her courage until a line had been thrown to her from the tug and she had made it fast.

Anderson was 22 years old and lived at 311 Bloomfield street, Hoboken. The body was taken to the morgue in West Street. Freudenberg lived at 178 North street, Jersey City Heights.

Charles Selbert, 55 years old, of 351 Bleeker street, Manhattan, was on the boat. He was killed by lightning. The boat was overturned and the two were killed.

ARTIST G.W. PETERS IS SUED BY HIS WIFE

Charges Him With Harboring
an Affinity in Exclusive Jersey Colony.

George W. Peters, an artist, with a studio in the Aeolian Building, is accused of harboring an affinity in the artist colony at Leonia, N. J., where his residence adjoins those of Peter Newell, Howard McCormack and Charles Chapman. He is also accused of ousting his wife and child from the house, although the land was bought largely with money she received from the estate of her father, a wealthy shoe manufacturer of Montreal, and she helped build the house.

The charges against Artist Peters are made in an application by Mrs. Mary Agnes Peters for a writ of separation and for a suit for alimony. Mrs. Peters says that her husband and Mrs. Mary Walcott, whom he has deserted, are living in an apartment at 201 West Eighty-first street, where they were known as Mr. and Mrs. Peters. The plaintiff says she visited the house and that the elevator boys laughed at her when she said she was the legal wife of Peters.

Mrs. Peters says she married the defendant in 1901, and they have a son, William August Peters, 22 years old, who is a sufferer from epilepsy and is dependent on his mother for support.

Mrs. Peters alleges that in January, 1913, he deserted her and took her to Leonia, N. J., where he has never returned. A separation agreement was then made, under which Mrs. Peters was to get $350 a week alimony and have the use of the house at Leonia. The plaintiff alleges that her husband failed to make the alimony payments, and she sued him in New Jersey to compel him to pay his agreement, and got a decree. He then ceased paying off the mortgage on the property, and a foreclosure suit was brought. Mrs. Peters says this was done in order that the husband might bid in the property at Sheriff's sale and then oust her and take possession himself, she says she was unable to prevent the action and the house was taken in the name of her husband's attorney and she and her son had to move.

Mrs. Peters says that her husband's income averaged $150 a week and she wants enough alimony to support her in the manner to which she is entitled as the granddaughter of an English judge and the daughter of a wealthy manufacturer.
